EXACT REPLICA

Army Grenade

(AS USED IN HAND COMBAT)

Yes, this is your chance to be the first in your neighborhood to have this realistic "weapon". It's an exact replica of the one used by the army and our marines in fierce hand-to-hand combat, to wipe out machine-gun nests, demolish trenches, "get" concealed snipers, defend against massed attack.

Just cock the firing mechanism, load the cap and you're ready! Imagine — you're a marine creeping up on that machine-gun nest, your grenade is in your hand. You creep close, low. Now you're in range, you pull the safety pin with your teeth and throw! Bull's eye, right into the nest. Blast! The machine gun flies out broken. Now silence. Your buddies cheer — the advance starts up again!

This grenade explodes 4 seconds after pulling pin as it strikes ground. Can't break. Heavy gauge steel firing mechanism. Uses standard caps. Can be exploded over and over. Comes complete with throwing instructions. (Parents: This toy grenade is completely harmless!) Clip ad, write your name and address clearly in margin and send it with $1.00 plus 25c shipping charge — cash, check or money order to:

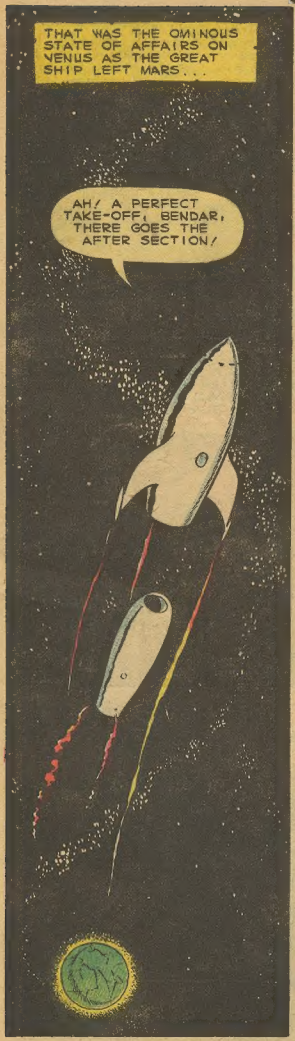
THERE IS THE CHANCE THAT WE MAY MISS ONE HERE OR THERE BUT WE WOULD WORK SO SWIFTLY...



THAT WAS THE OMINOUS STATE OF AFFAIRS ON VENUS AS THE GREAT SHIP LEFT MARS...

CEASE YOUR COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE IMPERIALISTIC BARODIAN/ CONFISCATE HIS RADIO/
BUT I TALKED WITH HIM ONLY IN REGARD TO THE MYSTERIOUS SPACE SIGNAL...

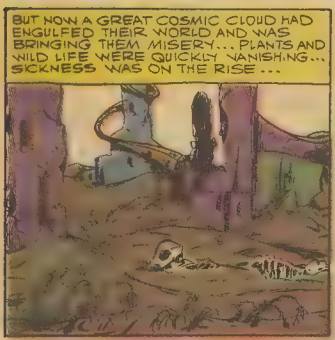
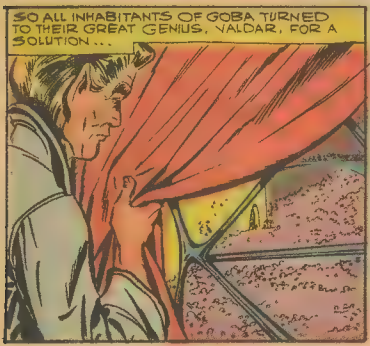
GOBA HAD A POPULATION OF 14,000,000,000 PEOPLE AND HAD ACHIEVED A GREAT AND UNTROUBLED CIVILIZATION...



BUT NOW A GREAT COSMIC CLOUD HAD ENGULFED THEIR WORLD AND WAS BRINGING THEM MISERY... PLANTS AND WILD LIFE WERE QUICKLY VANISHING... SICKNESS WAS ON THE RISE...

A VISIT TO OTHER PLANETS IN THEIR SOLAR SYSTEM DISCLOSED ONLY BARREN, FRUITLESS WORLDS...



SO ALL INHABITANTS OF GOBA TURNED TO THEIR GREAT GENIUS, VALDAR, FOR A SOLUTION...

I MUST ACCELERATE MY EXPERIMENTS... TIME IS GROWING SHORT.

OUTER SPACE

ONE DAY, VALDAR SUMMONED GOBA LEADERS..
I HAVE WORKED OUT PLANS ON HOW WE CAN SURVIVE AND ONE DAY RETURN TO OUR PLANET WHEN THE COSMIC CLOUD HAS GONE...WE MUST EMIGRATE TO ANOTHER PLANET...
BUT, VALDAR, ALL THE PLANETS OF OUR SYSTEM ARE LIFELESS AND SUBJECT TO THE SAME HEAT.
THAT IS TRUE...
THEN, WE MUST LEAVE OUR OWN SOLAR SYSTEM! THERE IS A PLANET THAT WE CAN FLEE TO...
WE WILL NEED GREAT SHIPS TO CARRY OUR ENTIRE POPULATION! WORK MUST BEGIN AT ONCE!
GREAT SPACE SHIPS WERE CREATED UNDER VALDAR'S DIRECTION...

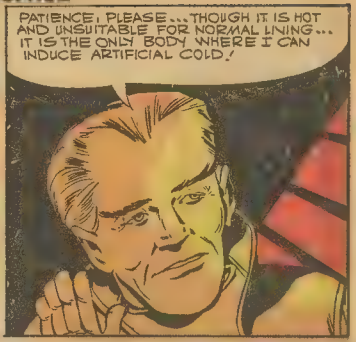
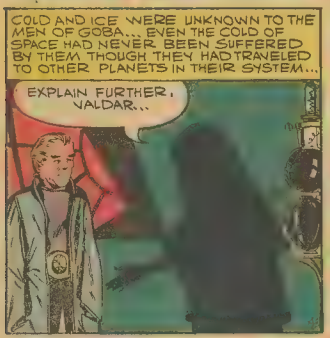
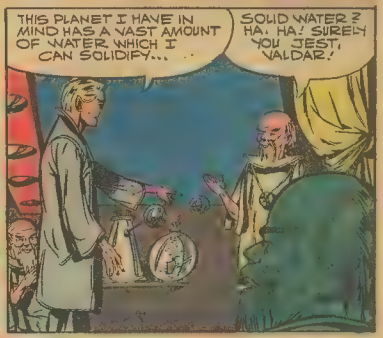
THIS PLANET... WHICH I HAVE CHECKED WITH INSTRUMENTS... IS ACTUALLY A VERY TORRID BODY!
WHAT GOOD WILL THAT DO?



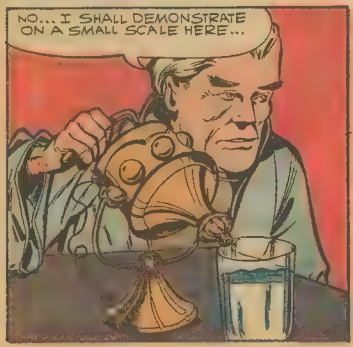
PATIENCE, PLEASE... THOUGH IT IS HOT AND UNSUITABLE FOR NORMAL LIVING... IT IS THE ONLY BODY WHERE I CAN INDUCE ARTIFICIAL COLD!



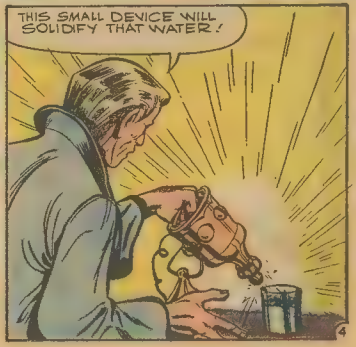
COLD AND ICE WERE UNKNOWN TO THE MEN OF GOBA... EVEN THE COLD OF SPACE HAD NEVER BEEN SUFFERED BY THEM THOUGH THEY HAD TRAVELED TO OTHER PLANETS IN THEIR SYSTEM...
EXPLAIN FURTHER, VALDAR...



THIS PLANET I HAVE IN MIND HAS A VAST AMOUNT OF WATER WHICH I CAN SOLIDIFY...
SOLID WATER? HA, HA! SURELY YOU JEST, VALDAR!



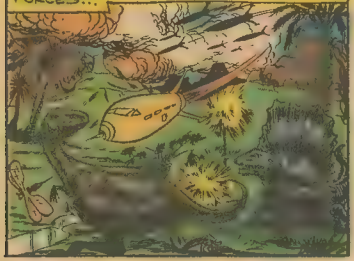
NO... I SHALL DEMONSTRATE ON A SMALL SCALE HERE...



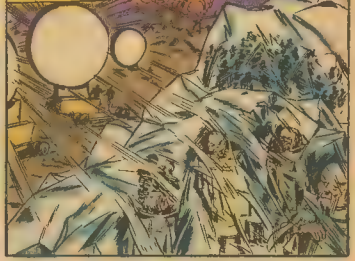
THIS SMALL DEVICE WILL SOLIDIFY THAT WATER!

IT HAS BECOME A SOLID WHICH I CALL ICE!
IT FEELS SO STRANGE!
NOW FOR MY NEXT SURPRISE! WE SHALL NOT ACTUALLY THRIVE ON THIS PLANET BUT WE SHALL BE THERE A LONG TIME...
...IN A STATE OF SUSPENDED ANIMATION ENCASED IN ICE UNTIL SUCH TIME WHEN GOBA IS FREE OF THE COSMIC PLAGUE!
BUT...
HOW WILL WE GET OUT OF THE ICE?
MY CALCULATIONS TELL ME ALL! I HAVE DETERMINED THAT THE ICE WILL TURN TO WATER AT THE EXACT TIME THAT GOBA WILL BE FREE OF THE COSMIC PLAGUE!
SUCH GENIUS HAS OUR VALDAR!

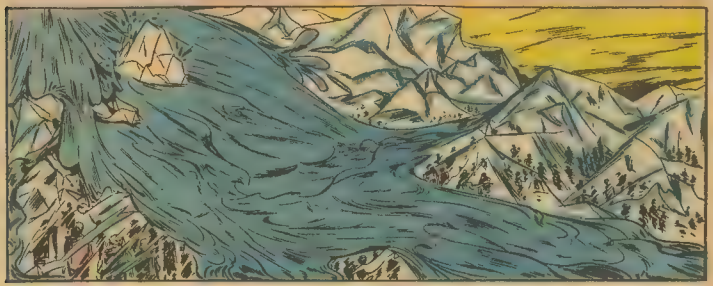
AND SO IT CAME TO PASS THAT A GIANT FLEET OF SPACE SHIPS LANDED ON THE PRIMITIVE PLANET EARTH DURING THE DINOSAUR AGE WHILE IT STILL QUAKED AND STEAMED FROM ITS INNER HEAT FORCES...



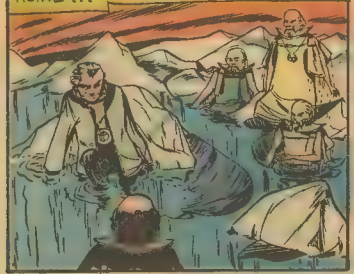
HERE MIGHTY VALDAR TURNED ON HIS ICE MAKING DEVICES THAT TURNED OVER HALF OF EARTH'S WATER INTO THE GREAT ICE AGE ENCASING HIMSELF AND ALL THE OTHERS...



EONS PASSED BEFORE THE ICE MELTED...FOR NOW EARTH WAS ENGULFED IN THE SAME COSMIC GASSES THAT WAS TO PROVE BENEFICIAL TO EARTH FOR BILLIONS OF YEARS TO COME! UNFORTUNATELY, GOBA'S ELEMENTS HADN'T REACTED THE SAME WAY...



TIME HAD PASSED LIKE A SPLIT SECOND TO VALDAR AND HIS PEOPLE! THEIR TIME WAS UP! THE ICE WAS GONE! IT WAS TIME FOR THE GOBA PEOPLE TO GO HOME...



THE FROZEN PEOPLE OF THE GLACIER ARE LEAVING AT LAST! IF WE TOLD OF THIS TOO, THEY WOULD DISBELIEVE US AGAIN!

EARTHBOUND

The time had come for me to be told the truth about myself. There was a lot I had long suspected concerning my origin. If two and two make four, then it certainly wasn't very difficult for me to figure out certain conclusions. The Thought Reading Machines on our planet of Ronto could read the minds of every inhabitant — except mine. I was much smaller than the average male Rontoian. Then there was the matter of that language which my mother had taught me. I alone could read some of those strange books hidden in my palace.

On this day I had reached that period of life in which the full responsibilities of manhood were to be assumed. My beloved uncle and guardian, Soloki, was turning over to me all the possessions left to me by my father. But I was restless. There had always been the feeling that I just wasn't "one" of the Rontoians, in spite of the fact that soon I would join the council of Three that ruled our planet.

There was the matter of my hair. I was the only person with that color hair on the planet. Cherisi, whom I was to marry, would love to run her fingers through my hair.

"Like the flaming moons of Luga," she would repeat. "The same color."

I was on the terrace when Soloki came over to me. He was tall and thin like most of the Rontoians.

"The council has decreed that all is to be told to you. The Thought Reading Machines will monitor what I say and what I think. But what you think they can't fathom. You have memories of your mother. Now you are to be told about her. Only as much as we ourselves know.

She was the last survivor of the spaceship that landed here. What killed all except her we do not know. It is our guess that probably an oxygen deficiency was the cause. The spaceship is intact and is kept in the underground vault. I will escort you to it. Then it will be destroyed when the big full moon of Lugo is high above us. This is the decree of the council.

My brother fell in love with her and they were married. You were the only child."

I reclined on my comfortable chair. What to say? That I was restless and had no desire to continue on this planet. The worko-orbits did everything for us. We were completely regimented. There was nothing for us to do. Neither manual or mental work was allowed to us. There were times when I thought that the worko-orbits were much better off than the average Rontoian.

There were other planets and other galaxies. We wanted to have nothing to do with them. Suddenly I smiled.

"I want Cherisi to see the spaceship that brought my mother to this planet."

I didn't wait for an answer. I switched on the visuo-screen and contacted her at her home. We would call for her shortly that was all I told her. Soloki was worried. I watched him clench his fingers tightly. He dared not think what he wanted to think, but I knew the thoughts that didn't dare to go through his brain: That I was restless. That I wanted to leave this planet. And that I would find a way to do so. And strange as it may seem, deep down in his heart he too was restless. He could understand my feelings.

We left the terrace and went to a side platform. A small uppo car awaited me. It was driven by a worko-orbit. I pressed a button and soon we were up in the air. It was a short trip and we landed at Cherisi's home. Her father and mother warmly greeted me.

"Our congratulations to you," they said. "Soon you will be one of our rulers."

Cherisi came with us in the uppo car. Soloki pressed the destination button. This time we flew at a high altitude to one of the extinct craters on Ronto. When we landed there were the guards. They knew me from the color of my hair and they saluted. We met Pargo, a member of the council. He noticed that Cherisi was with me but passed no comment. We went down by elevator and then I saw the large spaceship.

"It brought your mother here, the beautiful Louise, from another world," he said sadly. "Do you wish to go inside?"

"Yes," was my only reply.

The outside door was opened and a sliding platform came down. We entered the hull of the ship. Everything was in perfect condition. Slowly we walked from one empty room to another. I could imagine how once those rooms must have been filled with eager people in the search of adventure. How different from those who lived in Ronto. They didn't dare face the truth. They were dying of sheer boredom. Suddenly I made up my mind.

"You my beloved uncle, Soloki, has under the law of this land, the power to marry us. It is my desire you do it now. Pargo is the required legal witness."

I watched how the face of my uncle turned white. Pargo shook his head in the affirmative. Cherisi clutched my hand tightly. She was scared. And we were married. Then Pargo spoke.

"I assume you thought you and your bride might escape from our planet. The spaceship is in working order, but the power unit has been disconnected. You have your duties here."

"What duties?" I half shouted. "To see everything done for us by those machines! To watch everyone being bored and afraid to mention it. To have our thoughts monitored by the Thought Reading Machines. That is the threat you have over every inhabitant here. Want to know something? I don't think they exist. Nobody has ever been punished for what they have thought. Don't tell me that they all think what you want them to think. That this planet is the best one in the entire galaxy. You stay here!"

I left them and went into another room. Just like the one I saw in the picture book hidden in my home. I looked at a panel on the wall. There was a bright star on it. I turned the star and the panel opened. In it were the weapons carried by the crew of this spaceship. I took two flame-guns and stuck them in my sash. Then I closed the panel.

"Come with me," I ordered in a tone that I never used before. "I want to say something to the council. Contact them and see that they are ready with the sub-council."

Twenty minutes later we were in the large room of the state building. There had been an emergency flash and all had assembled. There was something important to say and I was going to say it. If I was going to be one of the rulers, then I would rule.

"From today on, a lot of things are going to be different here on this planet," I began. "I have in my possession two flamo-guns. If you want a demonstration later of the destruction that they can create, it will be arranged for you. But this is not important.

We must face the truth. Something you are all scared of and it has you in your grip. You are dying of boredom. Well, from this moment on, things are going to be different. You are going to have the spirit of adventure.

We are going to visit other planets. Even the one from which my mother came. That spaceship is the protype. We will build an entire fleet of them. But we. I do not mean the worko-orbits. I mean the inhabitants of this planet. We will man those spaceships. And we will fly them. There are frontiers to be conquered. Under the peculiar grip of fear and isolation we are bored. Nothing like adventure to give us the spurt of life and activity."

They were silent for some time. Then slowly one or two arose in approval. Others joined, and finally they were all standing up. Cherisi was at my side.

"I will always be with you," is all she said.

A year has passed since the day we threw off the bonds of boredom in Ronto. There is activity all over the planet and with it a happiness. Some of the worko-orbits are beginning to rust. We will stock pile them for an emergency. Using the spaceship as a protype we have completed a fleet of twenty. The crews have been well trained.

There were so many applications to go on our first trip that it was necessary to draw lots. They all know the chances we take. We may never arrive at our destination. It may take so long, that our children will have to man and eventually land the spaceships. But the call of adventure is strong.

And so we soon leave. If we fail, there will be others to carry on the work. Cherisi will be with me. And so will my beloved uncle, Soloki. And now I stand in the control room of the flagship of our fleet. I have given it a name. It is called "Earthbound." That planet will be our main goal. We may stop at others. But eventually we will reach the home from which my mother departed. I feel excited and happy. When I press this button we are on our way. One . . . two . . three
